

LUCKY MAY BABIES

They are either a Taurus or a Gemini.

Those born between May 1st and May 20th are in the Taurus sign and are described as smart, ambitious and trustworthy. Babies born May 21 and after are Geminis, who are said to be more passionate and dynamic.

May babies are optimistic.

Time magazine reported a study of 58,000 people about general optimism. The study stated that babies “born in spring score high on the hyperthymia scale,” meaning they are generally optimistic and see the glass as half-full. On the down side, the same article said that May babies have the highest rates of clinical depression.

May babies tend to be pretty healthy.

Research from the University of Columbia shows that people born in May have the lowest disease risk.

May babies are among the tiniest.

Some studies say that the babies with the lowest birth weight are born in May — perhaps due to the lower amounts of vitamin D in the womb during a winter pregnancy.

May babies are among the luckiest.

A study done in the U.K. showed that May is the luckiest month to be born. What is the unluckiest month to be born? October.

May babies might be night owls.

Studies show that those born in May might like to stay up late.

Birth Flower

Lily of the Valley - representing humility, chastity, sweetness, purity and luck in love.

Birth Tree

Hawthorn - representing love and protection

Birth Gem

Emerald - representing foresight, good fortune and youth (according to the American Gem Society)
